

RAPID CITY'S KINTIGH AND BARTHOLOW CROWNED STATE CHAMPIONS

Several West River trapshooters won State Champion titles at the South Dakota State Trapshooting Championships held in Mitchell July 18 – 22.

Don Quinn Jr. of Rapid City was crowned the South Dakota Singles runner up after a shootoff with Fred Nagel of Mitchell. They both shot 199 of 200 targets to tie for the champion title. Nagel went on to be named Champion.

Foster Bartholow of Rapid City won the South Dakota Doubles Championship with a perfect score of 100 x 100 twin birds shot. Colton Kant of New Underwood was named the State Doubles runner up with his score of 98 of 100.

Kylie Kintigh, also of Rapid City was named the South Dakota Handicap Champion with her excellent score of 98 x 98 broken birds. She earned her title after a shootoff with Fred Nagel, who tied the 98. Kylie is only the second woman to ever win the SD State Handicap title, and is the youngest woman to earn the honor in our state trapshooting history. Kylie was also a member of the first place Intermediate team in the Scholastic Clay Target program championships, held in conjunction with the Singles program at the State competition.
